Final Thought

Professionalism isn't what you do, it's how you do it.

CP Officers are unpaid professionals in the field of youth development.
