ASK your Wingman, “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- Be brave, be calm, be open.

CARE for your Wingman.
- Listen to their answer. Show understanding.
- Remain calm, don’t judge.
- Safely remove things they can harm themselves with if you can.

ESCORT your Wingman to someone who can help.
- Never leave your Wingman alone.
- Get help from a healthcare professional, chaplain, or other trusted person.
- Or, call 911

ASK your Wingman, “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- Be brave, be calm, be open.

CARE for your Wingman.
- Listen to their answer. Show understanding.
- Remain calm, don’t judge.
- Safely remove things they can harm themselves with if you can.

ESCORT your Wingman to someone who can help.
- Never leave your Wingman alone.
- Get help from a healthcare professional, chaplain, or other trusted person.
- Or, call 911

ASK your Wingman, “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- Be brave, be calm, be open.

CARE for your Wingman.
- Listen to their answer. Show understanding.
- Remain calm, don’t judge.
- Safely remove things they can harm themselves with if you can.

ESCORT your Wingman to someone who can help.
- Never leave your Wingman alone.
- Get help from a healthcare professional, chaplain, or other trusted person.
- Or, call 911

ASK your Wingman, “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- Be brave, be calm, be open.

CARE for your Wingman.
- Listen to their answer. Show understanding.
- Remain calm, don’t judge.
- Safely remove things they can harm themselves with if you can.

ESCORT your Wingman to someone who can help.
- Never leave your Wingman alone.
- Get help from a healthcare professional, chaplain, or other trusted person.
- Or, call 911

ASK your Wingman, “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- Be brave, be calm, be open.

CARE for your Wingman.
- Listen to their answer. Show understanding.
- Remain calm, don’t judge.
- Safely remove things they can harm themselves with if you can.

ESCORT your Wingman to someone who can help.
- Never leave your Wingman alone.
- Get help from a healthcare professional, chaplain, or other trusted person.
- Or, call 911

ASK your Wingman, “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- Be brave, be calm, be open.

CARE for your Wingman.
- Listen to their answer. Show understanding.
- Remain calm, don’t judge.
- Safely remove things they can harm themselves with if you can.

ESCORT your Wingman to someone who can help.
- Never leave your Wingman alone.
- Get help from a healthcare professional, chaplain, or other trusted person.
- Or, call 911

ASK your Wingman, “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- Be brave, be calm, be open.

CARE for your Wingman.
- Listen to their answer. Show understanding.
- Remain calm, don’t judge.
- Safely remove things they can harm themselves with if you can.

ESCORT your Wingman to someone who can help.
- Never leave your Wingman alone.
- Get help from a healthcare professional, chaplain, or other trusted person.
- Or, call 911

ASK your Wingman, “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- Be brave, be calm, be open.

CARE for your Wingman.
- Listen to their answer. Show understanding.
- Remain calm, don’t judge.
- Safely remove things they can harm themselves with if you can.

ESCORT your Wingman to someone who can help.
- Never leave your Wingman alone.
- Get help from a healthcare professional, chaplain, or other trusted person.
- Or, call 911

ASK your Wingman, “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- Be brave, be calm, be open.

CARE for your Wingman.
- Listen to their answer. Show understanding.
- Remain calm, don’t judge.
- Safely remove things they can harm themselves with if you can.

ESCORT your Wingman to someone who can help.
- Never leave your Wingman alone.
- Get help from a healthcare professional, chaplain, or other trusted person.
- Or, call 911

ASK your Wingman, “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- Be brave, be calm, be open.

CARE for your Wingman.
- Listen to their answer. Show understanding.
- Remain calm, don’t judge.
- Safely remove things they can harm themselves with if you can.

ESCORT your Wingman to someone who can help.
- Never leave your Wingman alone.
- Get help from a healthcare professional, chaplain, or other trusted person.
- Or, call 911

ASK your Wingman, “Are you thinking of killing yourself?”
- Be brave, be calm, be open.

CARE for your Wingman.
- Listen to their answer. Show understanding.
- Remain calm, don’t judge.
- Safely remove things they can harm themselves with if you can.

ESCORT your Wingman to someone who can help.
- Never leave your Wingman alone.
- Get help from a healthcare professional, chaplain, or other trusted person.
- Or, call 911