Preface

This pamphlet will prepare members for the responsibilities of a Civil Air Patrol (CAP) Cadet Programs Officer (CPO). The contents of this pamphlet apply to Cadet Programs Officers at all levels of this organization.

The most important thing to remember is what we want CPOs to set our up cadets for success. We want to create dynamic Americans and aerospace leaders, and we want to structure a challenging and rewarding leadership laboratory to make that happen.

This specialty track study guide has three sections. The first section applies to achievement of the technician rating, the second section is related to attaining the senior rating, and the third section deals with the skills required for the master rating. This progression should prepare members for positions of increasing responsibility as a Cadet Programs Officer.

Study each section and apply the information to actual situations on the job. If possible, the unit will assign an on-the-job (OJT) supervisor to assist members through the process. If the unit cannot assign an OJT supervisor, the member must learn the job through self-study and performance. The Region CPO should be actively involved in the training of Wing Directors of Cadet Programs, whenever possible, either as the OJT supervisor or as a mentor during self-study. The wing Director of Cadet Programs should assist in the training of group and unit CPOs. This track should assist in the training of group and unit CPOs.

The member and OJT supervisor will determine the level of competence at each level. When the member reaches the desired level of competency for the completion of a level, the unit commander will then certify proficiency in the member’s personnel records and with National Headquarters through eServices. After the unit commander’s certification of a technician, senior, or master rating, the member may wear the Leadership Ribbon. Completion of each rating is a requirement for a duty performance promotion. Complete promotion criteria is listed in CAPR 35-5, CAP Officer and Noncommissioned Officer Appointments and Promotions, and CAPR 50-17, CAP Senior Member Professional Development Program.

The CP specialty also has a badge. Upon earning the Technician Rating, a senior member is qualified to wear the CP Technician badge. There are separate badges for the Senior and Master ratings. Refer to 39-1 Civil Air Patrol Uniform Manual, for additional information.

This specialty track is governed by CAP 52 series regulations. Feedback on the contents of this study guide should be directed to CAP National Headquarters Professional Development (NHQ/PD), PD@capnhq.gov.
The Cadet Programs mission is important in Civil Air Patrol. Understanding the intricacies of your job as a CP officer at each level will prepare you to advance to more complex duties. Federal and CAP requirements change constantly so it is important that you stay up-to-date on any new requirements by visiting the CP section of the NHQ website, www.capmembers.com/cadets.

Training Objectives

Each level contains Knowledge, Training, and Performance Requirements as well as Service Requirements that must be completed in order to attain each successive rating.

Knowledge, Training, and Performance Requirements

These requirements are derived from self-study, on-the-job training (OJT) experiences, and agreement with your assigned OJT supervisor. Knowledge requirements are evaluated with a written examination. The exams are online and open book with no time limit. The passing score for these tests is 80%. Questions missed on the test will be displayed on your computer. The tests are found in the Learning Management System (LMS) in e-Services, www.capnhq.gov. Log in and select the LMS from the CAP Utilities on the left. Scroll down to the Cadet Programs Section and find the CAPP 216 Specialty Track exams.

Service Requirements

“Cadet Programs Officer” is an umbrella term referring to any senior member whose primary focus is cadets. It is not a formal duty title. Most of the individuals serving in the roles below consider themselves to be Cadet Programs Officers. The service requirements are met by actively participating in one of these positions.

Squadron
- Deputy Commander (of a cadet sqdn)
- Deputy Commander for Cadets
- Aerospace Education Officer
- Character Development Instructor
- Drug Demand Reduction Officer (DDR)

Activities Officer
- Chaplain
- Leadership Officer
- Testing Officer

Group, Wing, Region
- Deputy Chief of Staff, Cadet Programs
- Cadet Programs Development Officer
- Cadet Programs Special Activities Officer

Director of Cadet Programs
- Drug Demand Reduction Officer
Guidance for On-the-Job Training (OJT) Supervisors and Unit Commanders

The OJT supervisor plays an important role in the success of the Cadet Program Officer in training. These senior member officers, in partnership with the unit’s commander, guide the student through the knowledge, training, performance, and service requirements for the rating the student is pursuing.

Once the OJT supervisor or the wing CPO is satisfied that the student has met all the requirements for the rating, they and the student notify the unit commander.

When the commander is satisfied that the student can perform to the level applied for and has met the service requirements, they record award of the rating in the student’s master record and notify National Headquarters of the rating award through eServices.

Those enrolled and actively pursuing a Master Rating in Cadet Programs before April 1, 2014 can complete their rating using the standards from CAPP 216, dated April 2011 by October 1, 2015.

Publications You Should Read

Certain publications should be read by all CAP members. Others apply directly to the Duty Assignment. CPOs should be familiar with those publications that have high relevance for all CAP members, and should know those publications that are critical to the Cadet Programs program. For this reason, Civil Air Patrol National Headquarters provides this list of publications and directives for the new Cadet Programs officer to study and learn. (see next page).
