

TRUSTWORTHY SITES FOR DRUG INFORMATION

The following sites are trustworthy sites that you can refer to when you have a prevention question. Some sites also have intervention and treatment information that might be useful to you as you develop your Drug Demand Reduction Program in your community.

Federal Government Sites—General

<http://www.theantidrug.com>

Sponsored by the Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) with information for parents.

<http://www.nida.nih.gov>

Sponsored by National Institutes on Drug Abuse with information on current research.

<http://www.samhsa.gov>

Sponsored by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration with information about the prevention of alcohol, tobacco, and illegal drug use and the treatment of abuse and addiction.

<http://nrepp.samhsa.gov/>

Sponsored by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration with information about effective prevention programs, sometimes called “science-based,” or “evidence-based.”

<http://Thomas.loc.gov>

Sponsored by the Library of Congress with information on how to contact your senator or representatives.

<http://www.firstgov.gov>

The U.S. government’s official web portal has information, services and resources available through the federal government.

Federal Government Sites—Drug Specific

<http://www.clubdrugs.org>

Sponsored by the National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) with information on Ecstasy, GHB, and other drugs typically used in a club setting.

<http://www.marijuana-info.org>

Sponsored by NIDA with current information on marijuana.

<http://www.niaaa.nih.gov>

Sponsored by the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and alcoholism (NIAAA) with information on alcohol.

<http://www.cdc.gov>

Sponsored by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention with information about tobacco, including the Surgeon General’s Reports.

<http://www.dea.gov/concern/concern.htm>

Sponsored by the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) to help identify drugs of abuse.

Private, Non-profit Organization Sites—General

<http://www.cadca.org>

Sponsored by Community Anti-Drug Coalitions of America (CADCA) with information to support coalitions including current drug-related articles.

<http://www.casacolumbia.org>

Sponsored by the Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse at Columbia University with information about alcohol, tobacco, and illegal drugs. Also includes surveys conducted among young people and their parents.

<http://www.dare.com>

Sponsored by D.A.R.E. America.

<http://www.dfaf.org>

Sponsored by Drug-Free America Foundation (DFAF) with information for parents to help influence their children.

<http://www.nationalfamilies.org>

Sponsored by National Families in Action (NFIA) with information about drugs for parents and communities based on science.

<http://www.drugfreeamerica.org>

Sponsored by the Partnership for a Drug-Free America, offering tips and information for parents and caregivers.

<http://www.eccpasa.info/safehomes.htm>

Sponsored by the Erie Council for the Prevention of Alcohol and Substance Abuse, outlining the SafeHomes program.

<http://www.maine.gov/bds/osa/pubs/prev/1999/projgrad.pdf>

Sponsored by the Main Office of Substance Abuse Information and Resource Center, outlining the Project Graduation Program.

<http://www.madd.org>

Mothers Against Drunk Driving.

Private, Nonprofit Organization Sites—Drug Specific

<http://www.ensuringsolutions.org>

Sponsored by the George Washington University Medical Center with solutions to alcohol problems. Includes a cost calculator indicating the cost of alcohol abuse in the community and in the workplace.

<http://camy.org/about>

Sponsored by the Center of Alcohol Marketing and Youth of Georgetown University which monitors the marketing practices of the alcohol industry to youth.

<http://www.dxmstories.com>

Sponsored by the Partnership for a Drug-Free America and targeting teens with information about the dangers of dextromethorphan (cough syrup).

<http://www.americanlegacy.org>

Sponsored by the American Legacy Foundation, founded as a result of the Master Settlement with the tobacco industry. Includes fact sheet and research on tobacco hazards.

<http://cspinet.org>

Sponsored by the Center for Science in the Public Interest with information on alcohol marketing.

<http://www.inhalants.org>

Sponsored by the National Inhalant Prevention Coalition with information on inhalants.

<http://www.alcoholjustice.org>

Sponsored by the Marin Institute with information on the alcohol marketing and its effects on youth.

(Submitted in October 2011 by DDRC Donna Daniels, Great Lakes Region, daniels.donna@att.net, as part of the region's DDR Boot Camp curriculum.)