2. As a prerequisite to appointment as a chaplain, an applicant must become a member of CAP and complete Level I. The local unit will be able to give you the name and phone number of their wing chaplain who can help you get started in the process to become a chaplain.

3. These instructions explain requirements for appointment. Applicants must meet the following basic requirements:

EDUCATION: Have an accredited baccalaureate degree. Also, an accredited seminary degree, or equivalent, is preferred, however, a waiver may be granted to an applicant with at least 5 years of full time clergy experience.

CERTIFICATION OR APPROVAL: A religious official registered with the Department of Defense Armed Forces Chaplain Board must give written certification or approval for appointment as a CAP chaplain.

A REMINDER ABOUT CHAPLAIN GRADE

Chaplains are usually appointed to the rank of captain. CAP Regulation 35-5 does allow for officers who currently serve, or who have served, on active duty or in a Reserve or National Guard capacity to be advanced to a CAP grade equivalent to their armed forces grade but not to exceed lieutenant colonel. If this applies to you, attach a completed CAPF 2, Request for Promotion Action. Block VI of the form needs to be signed by the wing commander for promotion to major. The region commander also signs block VI for promotion to lieutenant colonel. Attach a copy of your DD Form 214, ID card or other written verification that you held this grade to CAPF 2. Advancement in grade must be approved by the appropriate commander.

We welcome you to become part of this unique ministry.

Instructions (Continued)

These are the items an applicant must attach to be considered for appointment as a CAP chaplain:

1. OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT.

An official transcript of your baccalaureate degree from a qualifying educational institution. "A qualifying educational institution is an accredited college, university, or school of theology listed in the current edition of the American Council on Education (ACE), Accredited Institutions of Post-secondary Education and relevant ACE supplements to that publication (Reference (e)), or any unaccredited institution that meets the requirements of subparagraphs 6.2.1 through 6.2.4." Your undergraduate degree MUST be accredited in order to be appointed as a CAP chaplain.

If your college or university is listed in the American Council on Education it is accredited.

If you are unsure if your school is accredited, call the wing chaplain and s/he will contact our chaplain's office at National Headquarters for a determination.

2. OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT FROM SEMINARY OR GRADUATE-LEVEL WORK.

If you have an accredited baccalaureate degree and have graduated from a seminary, Bible college or some other institution not listed in the American Council on Education publication, we will consider a waiver of the accredited seminary degree requirement, providing you have at least 5 years of full time pastorate or other comparable ministerial experience. Please include a resume or other statement showing the dates and locations of your pastoral experience, and a person (and their telephone number) to call to verify this information.

3. WRITTEN CERTIFICATION OR APPROVAL FROM A RELIGIOUS OFFICIAL.

Certain religious officials are registered with the Department of Defense Armed Forces Chaplains Board for certifying or approving chaplains. CAP uses these same individuals to certify or approve their chaplains. Most of these religious officials also participate in a national forum called the National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces (NCMAF). If you do not know who the proper person is for your religious group, you may call the NCMAF office at 703-276-7905. Ask your official to write you a letter endorsing you for appointment as a CAP chaplain. DD Form 2088 may also be used for this purpose. The letter needs to state that you are (a) fully ordained or qualified priest, rabbi, or minister of religion, who (b) is actively engaged in (or retired from) a denominationally approved vocation, and (c) spiritually, morally, intellectually, and emotionally qualified to represent his or her religious body as a CAP chaplain.

Be sure to include all required documents with this form.
