

CAP Cadet Protection Basic Course

Quiz

- Most victims know their abusers
 - True
 - False
- Victims almost always report their abuse within 72 hours of the attack.
 - True
 - False
- If abuse is happening, it'll be pretty easy to spot.
 - True
 - False
- The best way to protect young people is to fingerprint and screen adults who want to work with kids.
 - True
 - False
- The types of behaviors that good role models display often overlap with the behaviors abusers display, so it's difficult to spot an abuser because he may appear to be a superstar leader.
 - True
 - False
- Which of the following represents the BIGGEST risk of cadet abuse, according to CAP's cadet protection strategy?
 - An abuser suddenly attacking a cadet he has been fantasizing about.
 - A younger cadet being kidnapped during an overnight activity
 - Known offenders joining CAP because youth organizations are target rich opportunities for abusers
 - A senior isolating a cadet, grooming him or her by slowly taking the relationship into inappropriate areas, and then actually abusing the cadet at some point in the future.
- What level of adult supervision is necessary for a half-day, co-ed cadet activity?
 - Two seniors or cadet sponsor members of any gender.
 - One senior or cadet sponsor member of any gender.
 - At least two seniors, with at least one male and at least one female.
 - None of the above.
- A cadet needs a ride to CAP. A senior member who is not related to the cadet may provide the ride ONLY if
 - the cadet's parent grants permission in writing.
 - a third person is present in the vehicle.
 - the cadet and the senior are of the same gender.
 - another senior member, in addition to the driver, also rides in the vehicle.
 - Any of the above are sufficient
- The pilot of a powered aircraft may provide an orientation flight to a single cadet, without having anybody else on board the aircraft.
 - True
 - False
- A senior member needs to communicate with a cadet in the interval between squadron meetings. The senior member may
 - use email but should copy a third person.
 - exchange private text messages not visible to other people.
 - ask the cadet to come to his house for a meeting.
 - all of the above.

continued...

- 11. CAP has made two-deep leadership the centerpiece of its cadet protection policy PRIMARILY because
- A. a senior could abuse a cadet during a 5-minute closed door meeting at a CAP activity.
 - B. CAP's insurance carrier requires it due to liability.
 - C. the cadet cannot falsely claim abuse in such situations.
 - D. one-on-one contact puts the cadet at risk of being groomed for abuse.

12. Which of the following statements is TRUE regarding boundary violations? Check all that apply.

- A. A boundary violation basically means an adult has overstepped the bounds of normal CAP behavior.
- B. If a senior commits a boundary violation, that means someone has developed a reasonable suspicion of abuse.
- C. Simple friendly reminders about CAP rules are usually a good way to respond to a boundary violation.
- D. An example of a boundary violation would be having a closed-door meeting with a cadet who is not related to you without having a third person present.

13. A boundary violation is a form of abuse.

- A. True
- B. False

14. You would develop a "reasonable suspicion of abuse" (check all that apply)

- A. only if the serious harm was inflicted during a CAP activity.
- B. when you have specific, credible information.
- C. if another reasonable, experienced leader of cadets would suspect abuse if given the same information.
- D. when the act inflicted temporary discomfort upon the cadet.
- E. if a senior's inaction put the cadet at serious risk of harm.
- F. if a senior member violates the two-deep leadership standard.
- G. only if you have proof beyond a reasonable doubt that someone seriously harmed a cadet.

15. If you develop a reasonable suspicion of abuse, CAP requires you to

- A. contact your wing commander.
- B. begin an investigation.
- C. ask the cadet directly if he or she has been abused.
- D. do none of the above.