Mission Symbol components

Letter designates status

A & B = Air Force assigned mission (AFAM)

C = Corporate mission

Number designates the task to be performed

Missions for federal or national agencies, or the military, must be AFAM. Corporate missions may only be used to support agencies below the federal level.

Terms and Abbreviations

AFAM	Air Force assigned mission
AFRCC	Air Force Rescue Coordination Center
AFNSEP	Air Force National Security Emergency Preparedness
App	Approval
CAP Benefits	See CAPR 900-5 Section E
CAP Insurance	Liability insurance purchased by Civil Air Patrol to cover CAP and its members. See CAPR 900-5 Sections A & B.
CC at Wg/Rgn/Nat'l	A commander who may authorize a CAP flight. These commanders may delegate their authority to a limited number of other wing/region leaders. Delegates may not further delegate their authority. Approving corporate missions carries with it a very serious responsibility to weigh the risks associated with conducting each mission. These decisions directly affect CAP's corporate insurance policy premiums.
CMCP	Consolidated Maintenance Contract Program
Corp	Corporate mission, any mission not assigned by Air Force.
FECA	Federal Employees Compensation Act. This is comparable to workers compensation. See 5 USC §8141 and CAPR 900-5 Section D.
FTCA	Federal Tort Claims Act. See CAPR 900-5 Section C.
NOC	CAP's National Operations Center

Note:

"Air Force Assigned Missions" includes ONLY those missions individually and expressly assigned by the Air Force directly (AFRCC, AFNSEP, or CAP-USAF through the NOC) as required by law (See 5 USC §8141 and 32 CFR §§842.138) in order to qualify for FECA/FTCA.
