

Title

Talk with the Chief: The Noncommissioned Officer Corps

Abstract

Meet the Chief of the CAP NCO Corps and discuss the role of NCOs in today's CAP.

Description

Join the National Command Chief as he speaks about the value of the NCO Corps to the Civil Air Patrol. He will provide a timeline of his journey with the NCO Corps and share examples of the wonderful accomplishments our NCOs have made throughout "CAPville, USA." CAP NCOs retain their traditional roles of technician, mentor and advisor mirroring the USAF structure. Chief will discuss this unique mix of military backgrounds, training, skills and experience illustrating why the NCO billet is the way to serve and bridge the gap between the civilian talents of volunteers and the unique skillset of the military NCO. Come meet the Chief, he's eager to meet each of you!

Desired Learning Outcomes

- Demonstrate comprehension of the purpose and functions of the NCO Corps
- Discuss the evolution of the NCO Corps over the past decade
- Describe the need for and desire to develop CAP's NCO program
