

TRAINING LEADERS of CADETS
 BASIC COURSE
COURSE CRITIQUE

APRIL 2016

Was TLC a worthwhile experience? We need your feedback and help to continue improving the course. This critique is anonymous, so please sound off with your honest feedback.

WHERE YOU BEGAN

1. Before today, I would have described by my knowledge and abilities as a Cadet Programs Officer as

EXCELLENT	VERY GOOD	SO-SO	WEAK	VERY WEAK
<input type="radio"/>

WHAT YOU LEARNED

2. I understand what the Cadet Program is trying to achieve for cadets and for America, and how the program is structured to fulfill those goals.

STRONGLY AGREE	AGREE	NOT SURE	DISAGREE	STRONGLY DISAGREE
<input type="radio"/>

3. I understand the roles and responsibilities of squadron-level Cadet Programs Officers.

<input type="radio"/>
-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------

4. I understand the principle of youth voice, and that adults gradually increase cadets' opportunities for leadership as they advance in grade.

<input type="radio"/>
-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------

5. I understand the main guidelines about squadron meetings and weekend activities, and I understand some ways to evaluate our squadron's success.

<input type="radio"/>
-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------

THE INSTRUCTORS & CURRICULUM

6. The TLC instructors were ready to teach, knew their subject matter, and communicated well.

STRONGLY AGREE	AGREE	NOT SURE	DISAGREE	STRONGLY DISAGREE
<input type="radio"/>

7. The TLC program covered topics appropriate to new Cadet Programs Officers, and included a good mix of lectures, group discussions, and hands-on activities.

<input type="radio"/>
-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------

8. For instructors only. The lesson plans clearly explained the learning objectives and were easy to follow. I had everything I needed to be a successful instructor.

<input checked="" type="radio"/>
----------------------------------	----------------------------------	----------------------------------	----------------------------------	----------------------------------

WHERE YOU FINISHED

9. Having completed TLC Basic, I would now describe my competence as a Cadet Programs Officer as

EXCELLENT	VERY GOOD	SO-SO	WEAK	VERY WEAK
<input type="radio"/>

10. Overall, TLC was a positive and meaningful experience. I'd recommend TLC to a colleague.

STRONGLY AGREE	AGREE	NOT SURE	DISAGREE	STRONGLY DISAGREE
<input type="radio"/>

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS Use reverse if necessary.