7 JUNE 2018

APPROVED/J. DEBARDELABEN/CAP/PA

Public Affairs

CIVIL AIR PATROL PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAM

CAP Regulation 190-1, dated 16 November 2016 (corrected copy of 24 January 2017), is supplemented as follows:

11.1. Units below Wing will have at least two members with administrative/password access to any unit website(s). Additionally, the Wing Director of Public Affairs or his/her designee will be added as an administrator on any website(s) established by the unit. Should any administrator end his/her duties with the organization, his/her administrative rights will be terminated, his/her responsibilities will be transferred to another volunteer, and the password(s) will be changed. Administrative access will be granted via individuals' personal accounts and not via a shared account/shared password.

11.2. Units below Wing will have at least two members with administrative/password access to any unit social media accounts. Additionally, Units below Wing will add the Wing Director of Public Affairs or his/her designee as an administrator on the unit's social media account(s). Should any administrator end his/her duties with the organization, his/her administrative rights will be terminated, his/her responsibilities will be transferred to another volunteer, and the password(s) will be changed. Administrative access will be granted via individuals' personal accounts and not via a shared account/shared password.
