2026 Theme: Remember Me

This year's profound theme is Remember Me. As the nation approaches the 250th anniversary of the United States, we're calling for renewed focus on the individual lives behind America's military service. "While we often honor service members collectively, each one has a name, a family, and a story," says Karen Worcester, executive director. Through ceremonies, education, and community engagement, the organization will ensure service members' stories continue to be told, and their names are never forgotten.

Our Mission

REMEMBER the fallen.

- WAA's annual pilgrimage from Columbia Falls, Maine, to Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia has become known as the world's largest veterans' parade, stopping at schools, monuments, veterans' homes, and communities all along the way to remind people how important it is to Remember, Honor and Teach.
- The Remembrance Tree Program provides a living memorial to loved ones lost. A replica dog tag is made in honor of your loved one and it is attached to the trunk of an evergreen tree on the tip land in Maine where the brush is harvested every third year to make veterans' wreaths.
- The HART Ceremony (Honoring Allies and Remembering Together) is conducted each year to honor veterans of our nation's allies in ceremonies on the international border-crossing bridge between Calais, Maine, and St. Stephen, New Brunswick, Canada. Additional ceremonies take place across the country.
- WAA hosts statehouse ceremonies in nearly 50 states.

HONOR those who serve.

Through WAA's national group sponsorship program, it has helped other nonprofits and civic groups such as Civil Air Patrol, Scouts, 4-H Clubs, local VFWs and American Legions raise funds for their own community needs. Since 2007, Wreaths Across America has given back nearly $32 million to local groups.

- WAA conducts several programs to honor our veterans, including our popular Thanks-A-Million campaign, which distributes free "I Owe You" cards to people all over the country to share with veterans as a simple thank-you for their service and a promise to give back.

- The organization participates in veterans' events throughout the year as well as public outreach through Veterans Day and Memorial Day programs, Wreaths Across America Radio, in our monthly newsletters, in press coverage and on the website.
- The Wreaths Across America Museum located at the National Headquarters in Columbia Falls, Maine, showcases thousands of items that have been donated to Wreaths Across America over the decades. All donations help to provide insight and tell the greater story of the experiences of U.S. military personnel.

TEACH the next generation the value of freedom.

- WAA is committed to teaching younger generations about the value of their freedoms and the importance of honoring those who sacrificed so much to protect those freedoms. We offer lesson plans that are centered around character-based, service learning for grades Kindergarten through 12th. We also offer a research-based Youth Service-learning Project. Download these plans and the project for free on our website.
- The Mobile Education Exhibit (MEE) is a traveling classroom on wheels designed to inspire and educate about the mission and those who lives have been impacted by it. The goal of the exhibit is to bring local communities and our military together with education, stories, and interactive connections. To request the MEE come to your area, visit our website.
- In 2022, WAA hosted the grand opening of the Gold Star Family History & Hospitality House. The historic home is located next door to the nonprofit's national headquarters and National Museum in Maine. Each room has been decorated to represent a period in U.S. history associated with a military conflict. Stepping back in time in this beautiful home, while experiencing the lifestyle of the era and further learning personal stories of those who served in that time will be a history lesson to remember.

Frequently Asked Questions

Why do you use live wreaths?

Wreaths Across America does not “decorate” headstones. We are honoring all veterans and active military members by placing live, balsam veterans’ wreaths on the headstones of our nation’s servicemembers. The fresh evergreens have been used for centuries as a symbol recognizing honor and as a living tribute renewed annually. We want people to see the tradition as a living memorial to veterans and their families.

Does WAA have a religious or political affiliation?

Wreaths Across America is not affiliated with any religion or political party. It is our mission to remember and honor every fallen military service member during the holiday season, no matter what is happening in the nation or overseas. These are not Christmas wreaths; they are veterans’ wreaths or remembrance wreaths. Our goal as an organization is to Teach younger generations about the diversity of our American heritage, and the freedoms for which so much was sacrificed.

What are the sources of funding for WAA?

WAA receives no government funding. National Wreaths Across America Day is made possible by thousands of volunteers who organize local ceremonies, raise funds to sponsor wreaths and participate in the events. Individual wreath sponsors and corporate donors, pay for most of the cost for the program and volunteer truck drivers and transportation companies make it possible for WAA to transport wreaths all over the country.

How can I get involved?

There are several ways for volunteers to get involved. Please keep in mind that there is NO COST to attend or participate in a WAA event. Learn more at www.wreathscrossamerica.org.
