The image shows two AH-64 Apache helicopters in flight, silhouetted against a bright, hazy sky. They are flying over a vast, arid desert landscape with rolling hills and a small town visible in the distance. The helicopters are positioned diagonally across the frame, with one in the foreground and one slightly behind and to the right. The text 'STICK in the MIDDLE' is overlaid in large, white, bold, sans-serif font, following the curve of the helicopters' flight path.

DISCUSSION:
Does honor matter?

CORE VALUES

A scene from the movie 'The Hunger Games' showing Katniss Everdeen and Peeta Mellark standing in a grassy field. They are both wearing dark, tactical-looking clothing. Katniss is on the left, holding a bow, and Peeta is on the right, looking upwards with a determined expression. In the background, there is a large, dark, angular structure that appears to be part of the arena. The sky is blue with some clouds.

INTEGRITY

Katniss and Peeta keep their promise by working together

SERVICE

Heimdall faithfully guards Asgard
for his king

EXCELLENCE

Yoda's focus on the Force makes him a powerful Jedi Master

RESPECT

Gollum is a jerk, but Frodo still treats him with respect

WINGMEN

The image shows two vintage F-4U Corsair fighters flying in formation over a green, hilly landscape. The lead aircraft is in the upper left, and the second is in the lower right. Both are painted in a dark green and brown camouflage pattern. The tail of the lead aircraft is marked with 'FP' and '653'. The sky is a clear, pale blue with some light clouds. The overall scene is a classic aerial shot from a military aviation context.

the PARDO PUSH

“How can you fly off and leave someone you just fought in battle with?”
