A Program of the EAA Aviation Foundation

A PROCLAMATION OF MUTUAL ASSOCIATION EAA AVIATION FOUNDATION AND CIVIL AIR PATROL

WHEREAS, the Experimental Aircraft Association and EAA Aviation Foundation have undertaken the Young Eagles Program, a bold initiative to preserve aviation's attributes for a new generation of enthusiasts by providing one million young people aged 8 - 18 a personal flight experience; and

WHEREAS, achievement of the Young Eagles Program goals will serve to invigorate an aviation community preparing to enter its second century in the year 2003, as well as sustain the heritage of aviation into a way of life which has immeasurably benefited from its principles; and

WHEREAS, pilots and organizations such as Civil Air Patrol which participate in the young Eagles Program represent the highest standards of aviation citizenship in voluntarily providing aircraft, time and expenses for little more than personal satisfaction in passing on the love of flight and its positive influence on human beings; and

WHEREAS, EAA and the EAA Aviation Foundation welcome bona fide associates with other leading organizations toward pursuit of Young Eagles Program goals which serve mutual, positive interest as agreed upon; and

WHEREAS, The Civil Air Patrol is an outstanding example of a like-minded aviation organization whose interests in the future of aviation and young people parallel the goals of the Young Eagles Program;

NOW, THEREFORE, the undersigned officials of each organization do hereby proclaim a mutual association between the EAA Aviation Foundation and the Civil Air Patrol toward mutual furtherance of the Young Eagles program and the Civil Air Patrol Cadet Program as outlined in the attached CAP memorandum dated 5 July 1995.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, beside the affixed seal of the EAA Aviation Foundation, our signatures have hereunto created this mutual association on behalf of our respective members and the young people who will benefit from our efforts. Done this 20th day of July in the year 1995.
