

CREED OF THE NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICER

There is no creed officially adopted by the U.S. Air Force for its NCOs, but the creed below is widely accepted and is based upon a creed used by the U.S. Army.⁶

No one is more professional than I. I am a Noncommissioned Officer, a leader of people. I am proud of the Noncommissioned Officer Corps and will at all times conduct myself so as to bring credit upon it. I will not use my grade or position to attain profit or safety. Competence is my watchword. I will strive to remain tactically and technically proficient. I will always be aware of my role as a Non-commissioned Officer. I will fulfill my responsibilities and display professionalism at all times. I will strive to know my people and use their skills to the maximum degree possible. I will always place their needs above my own and will communicate with my supervisor and my people and never leave them uninformed.

I will exert every effort and risk any ridicule to successfully accomplish my assigned duties. I will not look at a person and see any race, creed, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin, for I will only see the person; nor will I ever show prejudice or bias. I will lead by example and will resort to disciplinary action only when necessary. I will carry out the orders of my superiors to the best of my ability and will always obey the decisions of my superiors.

I will give all officers my maximum support to ensure mission accomplishment. I will earn their respect, obey their orders, and establish a high degree of integrity with them. I will exercise initiative in the absence of orders and will make decisive and accurate decisions. I will never compromise my integrity, nor my moral courage.

I will not forget that I am a Professional, a Leader, but above all a Noncommissioned Officer.
