

LT COL JOSHUA W. STULTZ

Lt Col Joshua W. Stultz is a devoted member of the Civil Air Patrol (CAP), having joined the organization in May 2006. With over 16 years of dedicated service, he currently holds the position of Commander of Cobb Composite Squadron, a role he assumed in November 2020. In addition to his command responsibilities, Lt Col Stultz serves as the GAWG Group 1 Cadet Programs Officer since June 2022, the GAWG TLC Coordinator since January 2022, and the National TLC Intermediate Coordinator since December 2023.

Lt Col Stultz's journey within CAP began in 2006 as a cadet, where he served in pivotal roles showcasing his leadership potential. As a cadet, he took on the responsibilities of Color Guard Commander, honing his skills in precision and teamwork. Additionally, he served as the Cadet Public Affairs Officer, contributing to the communication and promotion of CAP activities. His cadet leadership journey culminated with him assuming the role of Cadet Commander, demonstrating exceptional organizational and managerial skills.

Transitioning from a cadet to a senior member, Lt Col Stultz has taken on various duty positions such as Activities Officer, Administrative Officer, Aerospace Education Officer, and more. His diverse roles highlight his adaptability and commitment to the CAP mission.

In addition to his CAP service and professional background, Lt Col Stultz is an experienced Skills Evaluator for Urban Direction Finding, Mission Radio Officer, and Mission Staff Assistant in Emergency Services. He has participated in multiple non-distress finds, showcasing his expertise in emergency response and coordination.

Furthermore, under Lt Col Stultz's leadership, Cobb County Composite Squadron was honored with the Col Dion DeCamp Ground Team of the Year Award for 2022, a testament to the squadron's outstanding achievements in ground team operations. In recognition of his exceptional contributions to Cadet Programs, Lt Col Stultz was named the Georgia Wing Cadet Programs Officer of the Year in 2022.

In addition to his CAP service, Lt Col Stultz brings a wealth of professional experience. Since May 2019, he has been a Senior Processing Specialist at Fiserv, where he processes consumer and commercial complaints and disputes for debts on file for TeleCheck. In this role, he demonstrates a deep understanding and compliance with various Federal and State/Local laws regarding consumer rights and responsibilities, including FDCPA, FCRA, UDAAP, etc. Lt Col Stultz also maintains training and required skills to effectively triage and assign consumer cases.
